

Measuring the Value of Volunteering at Wandsworth CABx

Wandsworth CABx currently has 75 volunteers, 51 of which provide advice. Our volunteers provided more than 10,900 hours in 2010/11.

Key Statistics: Wandsworth CABx Volunteers

- ✓ Wandsworth CABx has 75 volunteers, of which 51 provide advice
- ✓ Our volunteers provided more than 10,900+ hours in 2010/11
- ✓ We estimate the economic value of our volunteers to exceed £215,000 per year.

We estimate the economic value of our volunteers to be in excess of £215,000 per year.

In 2010/11, 24 new volunteers joined the bureaux, 17 of whom have begun training as advisers, and 20 existing volunteers left the bureaux, of which 6 are known to have gained paid employment; an indicator that they feel more confident overall, and more positive about the prospect of being interviewed elsewhere than they did before working for the bureau.

Volunteers at Wandsworth CABx are taken from all sectors of the local community. Over 61% of all volunteers are female, over 38% are male, and 49% are from black and minority ethnic groups.